

NOVAD CEO Appointed to Boys Town Washington DC Board of Directors

Community-minded CEO and 2010 recipient of the Washington Business Journal's Minority Business Leader Award, E. Davon Kelly receives appointment to the Board of Directors of Boys Town Washington DC.

Upper Marlboro, MD (PRWEB) July 21, 2010

E. Davon Kelly, CEO of NOVAD Management Consulting, has joined the Board of Directors of Boys Town Washington DC. Davon Kelly is no stranger to working with youth and is as committed to serving the community as he is to the field of management consulting. He has been a High School Boys Basketball Coach at a parochial school in the DC Metropolitan area for over 10 years where he uses the opportunity to focus youth on team building, leadership, attitude, and academics.

Kelly expresses his gratitude for the Boys Town Board appointment. "I am honored by the responsibility that has been entrusted to me and appreciative of the opportunity to work with Boys Town for young people who, with more role models, personal support and /or intervention, could believe in a positive future for themselves."

A recipient of the 2010 Washington Business Journal's Minority Business Leader Award, Davon Kelly also accomplishes his mission of empowering youth by providing annual NOVAD internships for emerging business students.

About Boys Town Washington, DC

Since 1993, children and families have benefited from the programs and services offered by Boys Town which serves nearly 370,000 at-risk children and families each year with programs and services that build healthy relationships and life-changing skills.

About NOVAD

A full service minority-owned management consulting firm, NOVAD has earned a reputation for excellence in consulting services as a result of their ability to mesh seamlessly with a client's organization and provide a carefully calibrated approach to realistic problem-solving. NOVAD clients include federal and state government agencies, as well as corporations and nonprofit organizations. NOVAD is a GSA Contract holder and an 8(a) Certified firm.

###

"I am honored by the responsibility that has been entrusted to me and appreciative of the opportunity to work with Boys Town." E. Davon Kelly, CEO NOVAD Management Consulting