

NOVAD Management Consulting CEO Receives Maryland Top 100 MBE Award

Attributes NOVAD Team's Focus on Client's Performance as Key to Success

Upper Marlboro, MD (PRWEB) October 14, 2010 - Davon Kelly, CEO of NOVAD Management Consulting will be honored on October 21 as one of the Top 100 MBE (Minority Business Enterprise) owners of the year. This year's award celebration is hosted by the University of Maryland University College, Southwest Airlines and the State of Maryland. The annual awards program honors outstanding women and minority business owners in the mid-Atlantic region (Maryland, Virginia, Delaware, Pennsylvania, and the District of Columbia).

Elated by the news, Kelly acknowledged, "This has been a year filled with recognition for the NOVAD team. Our success is driven by a desire to deliver value-added services that elevate our clients' performance with each engagement." In addition to the Top 100 MBE Award, earlier this year Kelly received the Washington Business Journal's Minority Business Leader Award for Outstanding Performance. The civic-minded CEO also joined the Board of Directors of Boys Town Washington DC.

Founded in 2003, NOVAD has quickly grown to 15 full-time employees and augments its staff with 15 independent contractors. After four years, annual revenues reached nearly $1 million and now total nearly $10 million.
